8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

10 JASON ALAN SMITH,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 BREMERTON POLICE
14 DEPARTMENT, et al,

15 Defendants.

CASE NO. 3:19-cv-5479 BHS

ORDER DISMISSING
PLAINTIFF'S PROPOSED COMPLAINT WITHOUT
PREJUDICE, RENOTING MOTION
TO PROCEED IN FORMA
PAUPERIS, AND TO AMEND
PROPOSED COMPLAINT

16 This matter is before the Court on plaintiff's application to proceed in forma pauperis
17 ("IFP") and proposed complaint. See Dkts. 1, 1-1. Pursuant to Amended General Order 02-19,
18 the District Court has referred plaintiff's application to the undersigned. Because plaintiff's
19 proposed complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, it is dismissed with 20 leave to amend. The Court will consider plaintiff's IFP motion once plaintiff has submitted an adequate proposed complaint.

21 DISCUSSION

22 Plaintiff seeks to proceed IFP, and as such, his complaint is subject to sua sponte
23 dismissal at any time for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. See 28 U.S.C.

24 ORDER DISMISSING PLAINTIFF'S PROPOSED
COMPLAINT WITHOUT PREJUDICE, RENOTING
MOTION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS, AND
TO AMEND PROPOSED COMPLAINT - 1

1 § 1915(e)(2). However, because plaintiff is pro se, the Court will afford him the opportunity to
2 amend his complaint unless it is clear that no amendment could save the complaint. See Jackson
3 v. Carey, 353 F.3d 750, 758 (9th Cir. 2003).

4 Here, plaintiff’s proposed complaint lists three defendants—a police officer, the officer’s
5 supervisor, and the police department—and alleged violations of the First and Fourth
6 Amendments and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act. See Dkt. 1-1, at 1–2. Plaintiff
7 makes conclusory allegations that he has suffered “extensive pain and agitation, deprivation of
8 rights, personal and property endangerment, conspiracy, cover-up” and seeks relief for “[p]olice
9 conspiracy to cause damage to my person and property” and “[f]ailure to protect.” See Dkt. 1-1,
10 at 5. Under the “statement of claim,” he writes “unlawful detainment, seizure, arrest,” “violation
11 of First Amendment rights by interference with recording,” and “[d]eprivation of freedom of 12 mobility and equal protection.” Dkt. 1-1, at 5. This is the extent of the factual allegations in 13 plaintiff’s proposed complaint.

14 A complaint need not contain detailed factual allegations. Bell Atlantic Co. v. Twombly,
15 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007). But it must contain some factual allegations and must not leave the
16 Court to speculate about the underlying events. There must be more than labels and conclusions
17 or the formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action. Id. The complaint “must contain 18 sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to ‘state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.’”
19 Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) (quoting id. at 570). Because here, plaintiff fails to 20 provide anything more than labels and conclusions, plaintiff’s proposed complaint fails to state a
21 claim upon which relief can be granted.

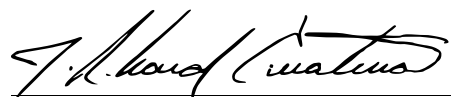

22 If plaintiff wishes to proceed, he must submit a proposed complaint that adequately states
23 the factual allegations and legal argument underlying his claims. The Court notes that it is

1 unclear whether plaintiff intends to proceed under 28 U.S.C. § 1983 or otherwise. In addition to
2 citing constitutional amendments and statutes, plaintiff should relate his factual allegations to the 3 elements of the particular type of claim or claims that he intends to bring. See Ivey v. Bd. of
4 Regents of Univ. of Alaska, 673 F.2d 266, 268 (9th Cir. 1982) (“[A] liberal interpretation of a
5 civil rights complaint may not supply essential elements of the claim that were not initially 6 pled.”).

7 The amended complaint must be legibly rewritten or retyped in its entirety, it should be
8 an original and not a copy, it should contain the same case number, and it may not incorporate
9 any part of the original complaint by reference. The amended complaint will act as a complete
10 substitute for the original complaint, and not as a supplement. An amended complaint
11 supersedes the original complaint. Forsyth v. Humana, Inc., 114 F.3d 1467, 1474 (9th Cir. 1997)
12 overruled in part on other grounds, Lacey v. Maricopa Cty., 693 F.3d 896 (9th Cir. 2012).
13 Therefore, the amended complaint must be complete in itself and all facts and causes of action
14 alleged in the original complaint that are not alleged in the amended complaint are waived.
15 Forsyth, 114 F.3d at 1474. The Court will screen the amended complaint to determine whether it
16 states a claim upon which relief can be granted.

17 If plaintiff submits an adequate proposed complaint, then the Court will consider his IFP
18 motion. The Clerk shall re-note plaintiff’s motion (Dkt. 1) for consideration on July 5, 2019.
19 Plaintiff shall file an amended proposed complaint no later than July 5, 2019. Failure to file an
20 amended proposed complaint or otherwise respond will result in denial of his IFP motion.

21 Dated this 10th day of June, 2019.
